

Austin Ryder Solicitors

SRA Legal Diversity 2015

The firm is made up of both male and female staff of varying ages, religious beliefs and ethnic backgrounds.

The social/economic background of staff is varied with some having attended state schools and some having attended independent/fee paying schools.

Some staff have been to University and others attended Colleges of further Education.

In some cases staff have caring responsibilities for family members with long-term illness.